

FALL 2017 Old Jamestown Association Newsletter

NOTE: Two articles in this newsletter quote material by Robert Swanson. They were not written in 1862, but in the mid 1900's. Swanson lived in Old Jamestown on Persimmon Lane and wrote many newspaper columns and his own newsletter with 'history' of the north St. Louis County area. He never included any sources and periodically complained when people challenged his 'facts.' He also wrote a series of columns, including Goodbye to Glory, that he admitted were fictionalized history.
